Community Gives Back in a Big Way at Hillcrest Washington Youth Home

(Evansville, IN – December 27, 2013) Many in our community became involved at Hillcrest Washington Youth Home (Hillcrest) this year to ensure that the season was bright for many young girls and boys served at Hillcrest.

The list of donors this holiday season includes:

- St. Phillips - Assorted gifts
- VFW Post 1114 - 42" Wide Screen TV for resident groups
- Old National Bank – WalMart gift cards
- Con-Way Freight - Assorted personal hygiene products
- DSM Engineers - Assorted games, hats, gloves, etc.
- Vanderburgh Co. Treasurer's Office - Games, DVD's, XBOX games
- Armstrong Hi-Lighters 4-H Group - Stocking stuffers
- Angie Effinger & Family - Arts and Crafts items
- Evansville Vanderburgh School Corporation - Arts and Crafts items
- Mr. & Mrs. Ray Hoops - Christmas gifts for each resident
- Pattie Davis - Stuffed animals, t-shirts and providing Santa for Christmas Program
- GAF - Gifts for all residents
- Jane Gaunt – Cash donation
- Saint Matthews UCC – Cash donation
- CASA - Magic Cares tickets
- Anonymous Donor – Funding for yearly memberships for activities such as the Evansville Museum, Mesker Park Zoo, Burdette Pool and Holiday World

"To see the smiles and excitement on the faces of the youth as they opened their gifts, enjoyed Christmas music, shared a meal together and enjoyed each others company at the Christmas program was remarkable. These kids were able to see how much they are cared for and thought of by so many this holiday season," said Becky Glines, Communications Manager with Southwestern Healthcare.
