

Southwestern Healthcare, Inc.

Caring for our Communities

In The News Published Article

---

Bosse, Reitz student TV shows to air this week

JOHN MARTIN / CORRESPONDENT

Evansville Courier and Press

November 23, 2009

The latest round of television shows produced by students at Bosse and Reitz high schools are on the air this week.

Bosse's "Community Link" program focuses on current local happenings, while Reitz's "Feel the History" series documents noteworthy people and events from the community's past.

The current episode of "Community Link" has reports on the West Side Nut Club, the Tri-State Food Bank's weekend backpack program, the Evansville Half-Marathon and Southwestern Behavioral Healthcare Inc.'s Stepping Stone program.

It will air at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, noon Thursday and 2 p.m. Saturday on Insight and WOW Channel 12.

Segments on the latest "Feel the History" episode focus on Willard Library and the Evansville Marine Reserve's activation for Korea.

The show will air at 7 p.m. Tuesday, 12:30 p.m. Thursday and 8 p.m. Saturday on Insight and WOW Channel 12.